NEW ANCHOR LINE STEAMER TO BE LAUNCHED SATURDAY

Octorara, Which Will Be Put on Portage Lake Route, is a Fine Craft

MUNCY, WHICH LEFT HERE SUNDAY, HAS HARD TRIP

Anchor Line Freighter Has Perilous Battle With Storm on Big Lake

SENTIMENT BEHIND ITS NAME REACHES DULUTH ICE LADEN

Saturday at Detroit, the launching of the new Anchor line steamer Octorara, will take place.

This is the boat that was contracted for some time ago. She will be put on the Buffalo, Portage Lake and Duluth run and will make her first trip to the Head of the Lakes on the opening of navigation next spring.

The new boat is modern in every respect, and is much like the other boats owned and operated by the Anchor line. She will add greatly to the carrying capacity of the line.

Sentiment is largely behind the naming of all the Anchor line boats and the latest boat is no exception to the general rule.

The Anchor line is operated by the Pennsylvania railroad and the stockholders in the company, at least the larger number of them claim Pennsylvania as their native state. In Pennsylvania there are a number of rivers, and years ago it was decided to call each boat built after a river of Pennsylvania.

The Juniata river hardly deserves to be named at all. It is so small declare men who are acquainted with the rivers of that state. But one of the stockholders was born and raised on that river and no other name would do.

The Juniata river is quite a river.
Some one else prominent in the company was reared on its banks and one of the boats had to be called after it.
So it has been with all the Anchor line boats and the rivers are getting scarce, since the company has grown and built so many boats.

The boat to be launched, the Octorara, is named after a river, of course, and it is, of course, located in Pennsylvania.

NOTED SINGER TO GIVE CONCERT ON MAY 30

Mrs. Schumann-Heink, the noted singer, has been booked for a concert at the Kerkdage theater, Hancock, on the evening of May 29. A. K. Cox of Houghton, who is making the arrangements for the entertainment, states that already a good deal of interest is being taken in the coming event. It will be necessary to fill the theater to meet the expenses of the engagement as the singer requires a big guarantee.

A. K. Cox, who is actively interested in bringing Mrs. Schumann-Heink here for a concert at the Kerkdage theater May 29, says that a great deal of interest is being taken in the engagement and that he is assured that the attendance at the concert will be large. The prima donna is brought here under an enormous guarantee and it will require a big attendance to make the venture pay.

Mrs. Schumann-Heink is the most magnificent and attractive figure in the musical world today. Her temperament is so humorous, so intelligent and so sympathetic, and her personality and individuality are so magnetically interesting and compelling, that she could command fame if she had no voice at all and simply spoke her lines monologue-wise. As it is, her voice is the most tremendous in musical splendor and vibrant melody, with which a daughter of Eve has ever been dowered. It is a revelation to the uninitiated and a never-fading spring of delight to the critic. Mrs. Schumann-Heink has a fine figure and has earned the reputation of being the most tastily dressed diva of the day. When she appears on the concert stage her smile is a joy to the eye of the beholder.

The peculiar flexibility of her emotions is the prima donna's strongest point. She never abuses the sonority of her voice. In songs, requiring delicacy of treatment her touch is as delicious and as fanciful as the first touch of the snowflake on a calm winter's evening. And in songs of immensity her power is overwhelming.

DO YOU KNOW HIM?

Postmaster Long has received a letter from Nelson H. Tannett, Mutual Life building, New York, who says:
"I am trying to locate John McCarty who lived at your place some years ago and married Mary Kelley at your place and afterwards I understand moved to the state of Wisconsin and was working in a mine. If you can give me information regarding this man I would thank you to do so, as there is some property to which this man or his heirs-in-law are entitled, if they can be located."

IN GOOD CONDITION.

Supt. John A. Doelle of the Houghton schools returned home Tuesday from the Otter river district where he has been inspecting the schools at Elia, As-ket and Tapiola, all of which were found in good condition.
